

TREATY OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF PANNONIA AND THE REPUBLIC OF KADMURIA

---

Article 1

1.1. The Republic of Pannonia (also République de Pannonie) and the Republic of Kadmuria (also Republika Kadmuria) agree to acknowledge the rights of the other to autonomous ruling as political entities separate from any other country, or political state of any kind.

Article 2

2.1. The Republic of Pannonia and the Republic of Kadmuria agree to, under normal circumstances, not to interfere in each other's internal affairs.

2.2. Abnormal circumstances are defined as circumstances in which there is a possible violation of The Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Article 3

3.1. Both nations agree to remain in peaceful coexistence with each other, except in circumstances outlined further on in this treaty.

3.2. They also agree that they shall never wage war against each other. On the other hand however, they agree that, where possible, they will fight aside each other for causes that both nations agree are noble.

Article 4

4.1. This treaty may only be altered via mutual agreement, and any alteration performed by only one country is reasonable grounds for the dismissal of this treaty or a destruction of the alliance.

Article 5

5.1. This treaty does not belong to either country. It belongs to a midpoint between the two, as will all treaties after this, to prevent any nation trying to circumvent the prior article and alter treaties in a way that benefits one nation at the expense of the other.

Article 6

6.1. Exploiting any loopholes in either countries legal system to be able to alter this treaty in an unfair manner is punishable by any means the affected country deems necessary.

For the Republic of Pannonia:

Bálint Brunner, President

For the Republic of Kadmuria:

Dimitri Stanislav, President
